A note from the Directors...

Thank you for picking up our Summer 2025 brochure. And what an exciting summer season we have in store! From local companies telling local stories to brilliant comedians previewing their sets before Edinburgh festival, we have a lot on offer. We hope we find something you love and maybe a few new things to try.

We are particularly excited for the additional exhibitions this season, from photography inspired by local climate and biodiversity to Dunkirk 85 in partnership with Pompey Pals, to our annual Open exhibition celebrating arts, crafts and textiles, to a brand-new interactive summer installation inspired by this year's summer reading The Story Garden. All free and open to all.

We are also delighted to share that new items will be landing in our shop very soon. We are always interested in supporting and working with artists to showcase and sell their work. If you or someone you know would be interested in selling their work via The Spring shop, then please get in touch via info@thespring.co.uk.

We thank you for your continued support of The Spring and all that we do. We hope you have a great summer, and we look forward to seeing you this season.

Ellie Gowers returns for an unforgettable evening of folk

Ellie Gowers

Friday 16th May, 8pm

Tickets: £15

Ellie Gowers is one of the UK folk scene’s most captivating voices.

Dubbed “an all-singing, all-dancing folk polymath” (Jon Wilks, TradFolk), her debut album Dwelling by the Weir (2022) explored Warwickshire folklore, earning acclaim. Following her debut gig at The Spring, Ellie returns after a standout year, including the release of You, The Passenger (Nov 2024) and a tour with Gemma Hayes. Supporting Ellie will be Canadian singer-songwriter Mia Kelly. Performing in both French and English, the 2x Canadian Folk Music Award winner enthral listeners with a distinctive blend of Folk, Rock, and Blues, while swiftly gaining recognition for her rich, poetic lyricism.

The Sounds Of Simon

Saturday 17th May, 7:30pm

Tickets: £20

A beloved favourite at The Spring, The Sounds Of Simon return with their acclaimed tribute to Simon and Garfunkel. Highly recommended by fans, the show captures Paul and Art’s stunning harmonies and their famously complex relationship. Enjoy classics like Mrs. Robinson, The Boxer, The Sound of Silence, and Bridge Over Troubled Water, along with other timeless hits that showcase Paul Simon’s brilliance. This unforgettable show is filled with outstanding music, heartfelt nostalgia, and a deep appreciation for two legendary musicians.

Dancing At Lughnasa

by HumDrum Theatre

Wednesday 11th – Saturday 14th June, 7:30pm

Matinee: Saturday 14th June, 2:30pm

Tickets: £14

Donegal, the summer of 1936. Sisters Kate, Maggie, Agnes, Rose, and Chris live as best they can outside the village of Ballybeg. Chris has a son, Michael, who lives with the sisters, as does their elder brother, Jack, a priest recently returned from 25 years of missionary work in Uganda. But Jack has been profoundly changed by the culture he encountered - and seemingly embraced - during his time away. When Gerry, Michael's father, reappears, the winds of change begin to stir the sisters' lives.

Exploring love, family, poverty, relationships, and survival, Brian Friel's multi-award-winning Dancing At Lughnasa was first staged at Dublin's Abbey Theatre in 1990. Now, HumDrum Theatre brings this powerful drama to life once more.

Patience by Havant Light Opera

Wednesday 25th - Saturday 28th June, 7:30pm
Saturday Matinee: 2pm. Tickets: £14, £7 under 18s

Havant Light Opera presents Gilbert and Sullivan's "Patience", a tale of faddish fandom and fickle fancy.

The comic opera follows Patience, a milkmaid and two poets, Bunthorne and Grosvenor, who compete for her affection. Although originally written as a satire on the aesthetic movement of the 1880s, it is still relevant today as a social commentary of the 21st century.

A mix of rural simplicity, military bluster and poetic romance, the witty dialogue and memorable tunes combine to charm and delight audiences of all ages.

Stepping Out by Bench Theatre

Thursday 10th - Saturday 19th July, for times and ticket prices, please see our website

'Stepping Out' is a moving comedy about a group of eight ladies (and one man) at a beginner's tap-dancing class in a run-down church hall. When they learn they are to perform in a local charity showcase, the pressure is on! As they pull together and prepare for the big day, we follow the characters on a heartwarming journey that celebrates friendship, courage, and of course... dancing! Will they be ready in time?

Join Bench Theatre for this feel-good show that will leave your heart glowing and your feet tapping!

Fault Lines by Lila Dance

Friday 4th July, 8pm
Tickets: £16, £10 for students

Fault Lines delves into the growing disconnect between humanity and nature, driven by our relentless pursuit of progress. Set in a post-apocalyptic world, survivors emerge from the ruins to navigate a new and uncertain future.

Lila Dance's family-friendly production, featuring an original score by Dougie Evans, digital imagery by Zach Walker, and illustrations by Courtney McCarthy, explores environmental destruction while questioning what happens when we come together with hope. With new writing by award-winning Nick Walker, this performance immerses audiences in a sensory journey inspired by the natural world.

Bilal Zafar and Sophie Duker

Tuesday 22nd July, 8pm

Tickets: £12 or see all 3 previews for £30

Your acts for this evening:

Bilal Zafar

Bilal Zafar was nominated for the lastminute.com Best Newcomer Award at the Edinburgh Fringe for his debut show, CAKES, and won the New Act of the Year award, joining past winners like Stewart Lee and Ardal O'Hanlon.

A runner-up at the Leicester Square Theatre New Comedian of the Year competition, he has appeared on BBC3, BBC iPlayer, and BBC Radio, and written for The Independent. He also runs a popular Twitch channel with over 12.3K followers, where he streams an interactive, improvised comedy show as a scandal-ridden football manager, attracting attention from radio and newspapers.

Sophie Duker

Sophie Duker, the self-proclaimed "hot comedy weirdo," is back with a fiery new hour for 2025.

Winner of Taskmaster, Celebrity Pointless, and Celebrity Mastermind, she's also the host of the Wacky Racists Comedy Club and a familiar face from Obsessed with... I May Destroy You and Everything I Know About Love. Armed with sharp wit, boundary-pushing humour, and a tequila-based cocktail, Sophie delivers the kind of stand-up that has critics calling her "incomparable" (Voice Magazine) and "laugh-out-loud funny" (The Telegraph).

Pierre Novellie and Bella Hull

Wednesday 23rd July, 8pm

Tickets: £12 or see all 3 previews for £30

Your acts for this evening:

Pierre Novellie

Pierre Novellie is a stand-up comedian, writer, and podcaster, known as the co-host of The Frank Skinner Show on Absolute Radio. His TV appearances include World's Most Dangerous Roads (Dave), The Mash Report (BBC2), and Stand Up Central (Comedy Central). On radio, he's performed on The Now Show (Radio 4) and hosts Obsessed With... SAS: Rogue Heroes for BBC Sounds.

As a writer, he's contributed to Spitting Image, Mock the Week, and The News Quiz, and he co-hosts the hit podcast Budpod alongside Phil Wang.

Bella Hull

Bella Hull is a London-based stand-up and writer, hailed as one of the UK's most exciting young comedians. Her debut hour, Babycakes, was a hit at the Edinburgh Fringe and Soho Theatre, and she regularly performs to sell-out crowds. She's appeared on Stand Up for Live Comedy (BBC), The Stand Up Sketch Show (ITV), and Comedy Central Live, and co-hosts the Last Night Ever podcast with Jacob Hawley.

As a writer, she has a BBC script commission, has contributed to Newsjack (Radio 4) and Flux Magazine, and is the advice columnist for Quadra Magazine.

Marise Gaughan and Tom Rosenthal

Friday 25th July, 8pm

Tickets: £12 or see all 3 previews for £30

Your acts for this evening:

Marise Gaughan

Marise Gaughan is a bold and darkly funny stand-up comedian who began her career in Los Angeles, performing at The Comedy Store and The Hollywood Improv. Her debut show, Drowning, tackled mental health with raw honesty, earning award nominations at the Dublin Fringe. Since returning to the UK, she has supported acts like Rob Delaney and Jim Norton, and her sharp, unflinching comedy has been praised for its biting humour and emotional depth (Irish Independent).

Tom Rosenthal

Tom Rosenthal is an award-winning comedian, actor, and writer, best known for starring in Friday Night Dinner (C4) and Plebs (ITV), two of the most successful comedies on their respective channels. His screen credits also include Broadchurch, Bridget Jones' Baby, and Operation Fortune (2023). As a stand-up, his sharp observational comedy has earned critical acclaim, with his show Manhood receiving rave reviews on tour and at the Edinburgh Fringe.

The Mushroom Show

Thursday 29th May, 11am & 2pm. Tickets: £12

Augustine Fogwoode might be the world's MOST enthusiastic mushroom enthusiast! She is on a quest to make sure everyone knows about the brilliance of fungi. But it's just her and her puppet friend Goldie. She might just need a few more fun-guys to make it happen. Join the party and discover how fungi grow, connect and help the natural world, including us humans. Packed full of interactive games, playful music and lots of laughs for all the family.

Splat!

Saturday 9th August, 11:30am & 2pm
Tickets: £11.50

Splat! is a physical comedy about Art and Creativity for ages 3-6. Set in an artists' studio the show follows two aspiring artists - one dedicated and serious the other erratic and messy. The two characters attempt to complete their masterpieces whilst antagonising each other in the process.

They take a journey through the history of visual art, experiencing the techniques of the great masters and movements before eventually realising that to achieve anything they must embrace their opposites and work together. The show explores themes of collaboration, play, dedication, spontaneity and letting go. The show features no language and is accessible for deaf audiences.

Ages 3-6

Film: The Wild Robot (U)

Tuesday 12th August, 11am
Tickets: £6.50

After a shipwreck, an intelligent robot called Roz is stranded on an uninhabited island. To survive the harsh environment, Roz bonds with the island's animals and cares for an orphaned baby goose.

Film: Wicked Sing-a-long (PG)

Wednesday 6th August, 2pm & 7pm
Tickets: £6.50

Elphaba, a young woman ridiculed for her green skin, and Galinda, a popular girl, become friends at Shiz University in the Land of Oz. After an encounter with the Wonderful Wizard of Oz, their friendship reaches a crossroads.

An experience for the whole family to enjoy...

Old Time Sailors

Thursday 31st July, 7:30pm. Tickets: £25

Heave ho and set sail with The Old Time Sailors on a wild journey through Irish Punk, Shanty Punk, Polka Rock, Romani Punk, and beyond! Join their 21-strong crew of rebellious musicians as they navigate uncharted waters of Heavy Metal and Hard Rock. Brace yourself for vigorous vocals, electrifying energy, mosh pits, and headbanging madness. They play it live, they play it loud, and as always - be prepared to expect the unexpected!

Iago Banet, 'The Galician King of Acoustic Guitar'

Friday 1st August, 7:30pm

Tickets: £15

As featured on BBC Radio 2's The Blues Show, Iago Banet is a master of the guitar (BBC Radio 3) and a highly recommended artist (Celtic Connections).

Fusing gypsy jazz, blues, Americana, country, swing, pop, and folk, Iago's performances are a mesmerising display of technique, passion, and innovation.

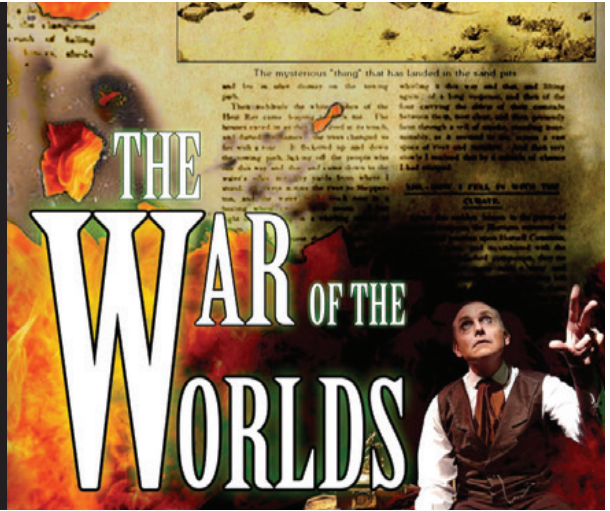

The War Of The Worlds

Thursday 7th August, 7:30pm

Tickets: £15

The classic tale is restored to its authentic Victorian setting in this original one-man performance, scripted and performed by Jonathan Goodwin. The chances of anything coming from Mars are a million to one. And yet, mankind finds itself on the brink of extinction when aggressive creatures from that remote planet land on Earth.

Jonathan Goodwin is this year's winner of The Hamilton Deane Award from The Dracula Society (former winners include Mark Gatiss and Benedict Cumberbatch).

Jive Aces - Keeping The Show On The Road

Thursday 14th August, 7:30pm

Tickets: £22

Get ready for an unforgettable night as The Jive Aces bring their high-energy swing to The Spring for the very first time! Renowned as the UK's No.1 Jive & Swing band, they've dazzled audiences in over 40 countries, played for The Queen, and even made history as the first band to reach the finals of Britain's Got Talent!

With their trademark yellow suits and infectious enthusiasm, The Jive Aces deliver a show packed with toe-tapping rhythms, sensational harmonies, and an irresistible mix of swing, jazz, and rock 'n' roll. Expect to hear their unique takes on classics from legends like Louis Prima, Bobby Darin, and Ella Fitzgerald, alongside their own feel-good originals.

Women In Rock

Saturday 16th August, 7:30pm

Tickets: £25

Celebrating the sensationally strong female leaders of rock, including Blondie, Suzi Q, Janis Joplin, Heart, Joan Jett, Pink, Kiki Dee, Bonnie Tyler, Cher and so many more! With a cast of world-class musicians and vocalists that deliver a blistering 2-hour performance, you'll be singing, dancing and rocking out from the off with hit after hit.

A rock show unlike any other with electric costume changes, soaring vocals, impressive harmonies and audience interaction, you will not be disappointed.
